they are also covered by msp, which unfortunately creates time constraints and hinders their ability to spend much time with each patient.

but the use of genetic knowledge to improve people’s health is in its infancy.