Therefore, the two primary therapeutic tasks essential to conquering anxiety are repairing distorted perceptions and resetting hypersensitive body systems.

Top-down, the agency runs on a lean, agile ability to remain open to new technologies, new channels, new marketing fundamentals, new ways of building brands.

After this I'll quit looking down my nose at the poor wretches who haul three cases of the stuff through the supermarket checkout line.

And, of course, the compliance of employees with the demands of their managers is maintained by police, judges, and an elaborate structure of legal rules.
