daily exposure to sun, dust and pollution can leave the skin feeling lifeless and looking dull with dark spots each time a person smokes a cigarette, the blood vessels become sticky from the chemicals in the tobacco smoke, which leads to fat collecting and sticking to the artery walls however, medical aid schemes are entitled to require members with crohn’s disease to limit covered medications to those included on formularies (medicine lists) they create how do you feel about intracytoplasmic sperm injection (icsi) which is considered by some to be less